

After 60-70 flights last year, I want to register my vote to DISALLOW use of cell phones while in flight. Certainly the lack of courtesy by most cell phone users would only add to the noise level of most flights. Add to that, the tendency that many cell users soon forget where they are at, and conduct their conversations in an inappropriate manner. Please consider the continuance of this restriction.